

Scene Setters

COMMUNITY LIFE IN THE GRANITE STATE

To see more photos and order online, visit UnionLeader.com/photos
To submit a photo for Scene Setters, email us at lifestyles@unionleader.com

Bob Baines Blarney Breakfast

Clockwise, above, from left, Earnest Beers and his son, Special Olympics athlete John Beers, are with Bob Baines at the Bob Baines Blarney Breakfast on March 14 at the Manchester Downtown Hotel; Roman Tynan, a tenor from Dublin, Ireland, performs at the breakfast; and John Clayton, left, executive director of the Manchester Historic Association, and Gov. Chris Sununu attend the breakfast. The event raised $102,000 for Special Olympics of New Hampshire, the American Red Cross and the Shirley Brulotte Fund for the International Institute of New Hampshire, which assists refugees when they arrive in Manchester. Over the past 18 years, the event has raised more than $1 million for charity.

COURTESY

