Team New Hampshire Competes in Seattle at 2018 Special Olympics USA Games Tuesday, July 3, 2018

Thirty-eight athletes and fifteen coaches from across New Hampshire are in Seattle, Washington competing at the 2018 Special Olympics USA Games. From July 1-6, Team New Hampshire will join thousands of Special Olympics athletes and coaches from across the nation, along with tens of thousands of volunteers, family members and fans, for a week of special events and competitions. Team New Hampshire athletes will be competing in athletics, basketball, bocce, bowling, golf, powerlifting and swimming. In addition, Team New Hampshire has one athlete and one Unified Sports® partner participating in the Youth Leadership Experience, which will bring together high school students from across the country where they will participate in a week of volunteering and training on how to be representatives of change within their schools, communities, and state.
